New Year's Greetings!

As the ball drops at midnight and another year begins, most reflect upon the events of the previous year. In the Roanoke County Department of Community Development, we look to the future of our County.

The Planning and Zoning Departments are working hard on Area Plans and zoning ordinance amendments to guide growth and development in the County, the Engineering Department is becoming more proactive in reviewing plans with an environmental perspective, Stormwater is inspecting existing facilities to ensure their continued success in the future and the GIS Department is improving public safety constantly updating address points and street information to ensure that emergency vehicles can arrive at their destinations quickly.

We look forward to working with you in 2010!

Glenvar Community Meeting

Approximately 80 Glenvar residents took part in a visioning exercise and visual preference survey at the community meeting on Tuesday, June 29. Residents were asked to imagine what the West Main Street corridor would like in 20 years - exactly how they would like it to be. Following this exercise, residents also completed a visual preference survey - a method for the public to give feedback on planning and design alternatives. The input gathered from these meetings will be used in the development of the Glenvar Community Plan as well as design guidelines for the area.

A second visioning meeting will be held on July 15 at 7:00 PM in the Fort Lewis Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. This meeting will focus on the Dixie Caverns area of the Glenvar Community.

National Community Planning Month

October has been designated National Community Planning Month by the American Planning Association (APA) as a way to highlight the role of planners and planning in our community. This year's theme, "Sustaining Places," celebrates how places can be sustained and how places themselves sustain life and civilizations.

Why is good planning important? Good planning gives residents options- from transportation choices, where to live, to the type of home to live in, and where to shop. Many residents do not realize just how much their daily life is influenced by planning.

National Community Planning Month is an opportunity to recognize how planning shapes Roanoke County and the work of planners and the planning profession in creating communities of lasting value.

Fire Prevention Week 2010

October 3-9, 2010

This year's Fire Prevention Campaign is designed to educate people about the importance of smoke alarms and encourages everyone to take the steps necessary to update and maintain their home smoke alarm protection.

Did You Know...?

- Each year, nearly 3,000 people die in U.S. home fires.
- Smoke alarms cut the risk of dying in a reported fire in half.
- From 2003-2006, roughly two-thirds of home fire deaths were in residences with no smoke alarms or no working smoke alarms.
