South County Business Burglar Arrested

(Roanoke County, VA—May 26, 2017) Following a string of burglaries at businesses along Electric Road and Brambleton Avenue, Roanoke County Police received an anonymous tip identifying an individual in security video that was released to the public through the media. After investigating the tip and corroborating the information, detectives were able to obtain a search warrant and recover most of the stolen property.

Raphael Franc McNamara-Harvey, 34, has been arrested and charged with four counts of breaking and entering, three counts of grand larceny and one count of stealing a credit card. Mr. McNamara-Harvey is incarcerated, awaiting bond.

The Police Department thanks the media and the public for their assistance.
