

News Release

Contact: Teresa Hamilton Hall
Roanoke County Police Department
(540) 772-2010
thall@roanokecountyva.gov
Date: March 28, 2012

- Incident: Missing Person
- Date of Incident: March 28, 2012      Time of Incident: Approx. 11:45 a.m.
- Location of Incident: Kentucky Fried Chicken located at 4057 Electric Rd.
- Investigating Officer: Officer R. Torres
- Victim Name(s): Freddie W. Fralin of Roanoke County
- Victim Age: 66
- Additional Remarks:

Police are asking for the public's help with locating an elderly man who was last seen leaving the Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant on Electric Road shortly before noon. 66-year-old Freddie Fralin was wearing a Navy Blue t-shirt with Reston South in white lettering on the front, dark colored pants, black shoes and a dark colored baseball cap. Police are concerned for Mr. Fralin's safety because he suffers from dementia.

Mr. Fralin is an elderly black male, who is balding with salt and pepper hair, approximately 6'0" tall, 180 pounds, and has a thick mustache.

Anyone who sees Mr. Fralin should call their local police department or Roanoke County Police Officer R. Torres at 540-562-3265.

#####