Roanoke County Courthouse Parking Changes June 7 -12 Due to Paving Project

(Roanoke County, VA) June 4, 2021 – The project to begin paving the parking lot at the Roanoke County Courthouse complex begins on Monday, June 7 through Saturday, June 12, weather permitting.

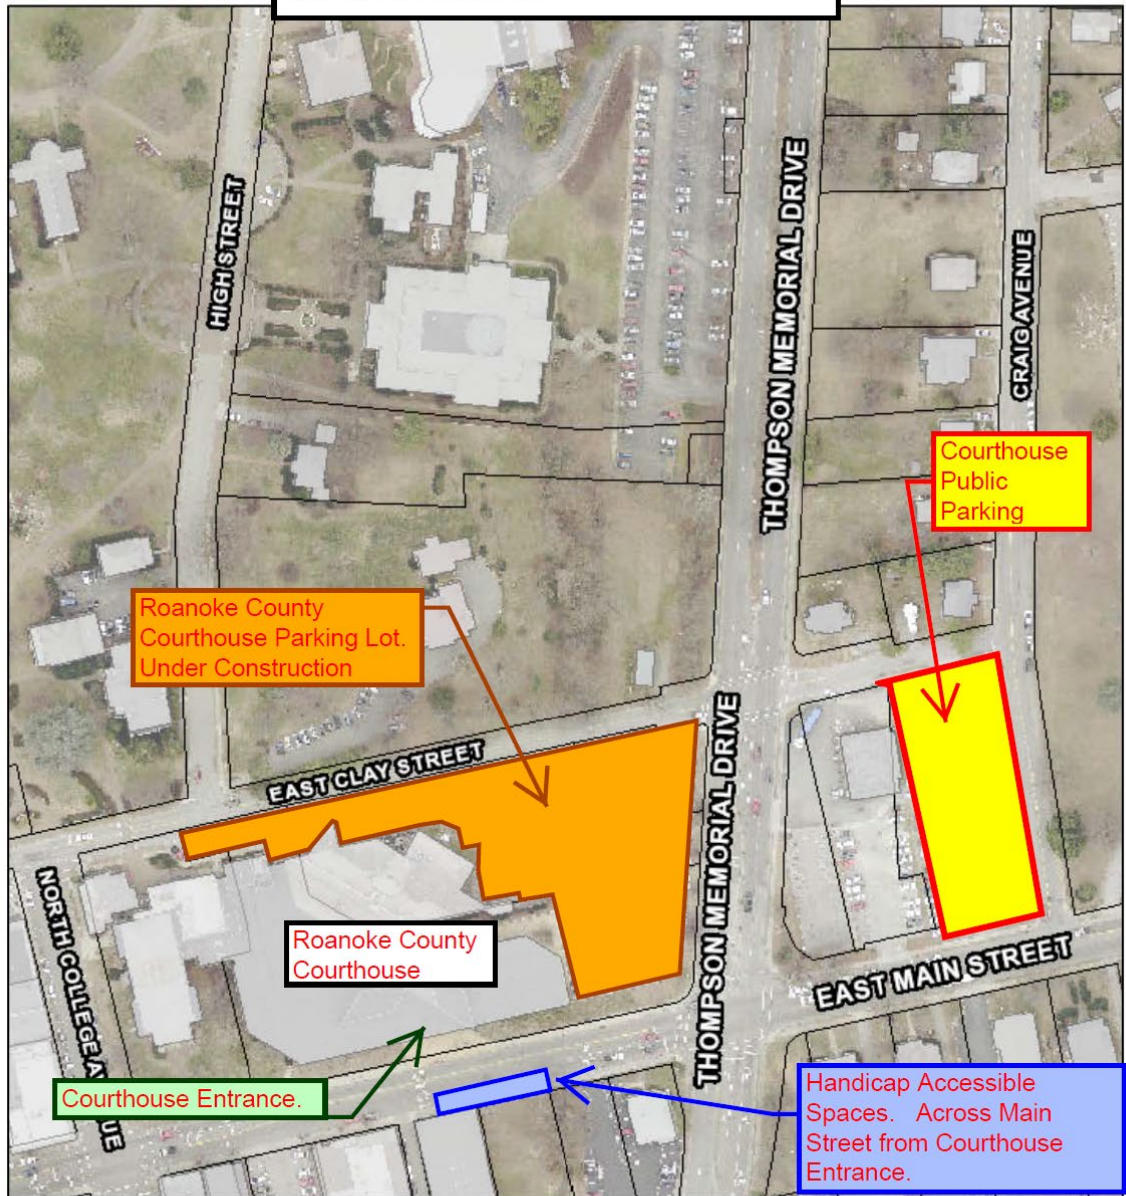

Beginning on Monday, June 7, visitors to the Roanoke County Courthouse may use the parking lot located behind the convenience store, across Thompson Memorial Drive (Rt. 311). Signs will be provided to direct people to the parking lot.

Temporary parking for handicapped individuals will be available across from the Courthouse on Main Street, in front of the Roanoke County Court Services building.

The paving project may be extended in the event that inclement weather delays work on the project.
